Hi Jeff,

Ex. 5 - Deliberative

As for getting materials together - drafts are ready for operation/water quantity & operation/water quality (although I still have to highlight the key pathways). I'll be working on that and the additional drafts today, and should have a better idea of where that stands by the end of the day. I'll plan on sending out a brief narrative description and whatever diagrams are sufficiently along by COB tomorrow - at minimum, it will be the overview, operation/water quantity and operation/water quality ones, but I'm hoping I can get through at least 2 of the other 3 as well.

Just let me know if you have any questions or thoughts.

Kate

Kate:

As part of the information to be sent to those participating in the Intergovernmental Technical Team Meeting in Anchorage, August 9-10, we would like to include the revised conceptual diagrams discussed during our last meeting in Anchorage.

I would like our technical team to have the opportunity to review what we plan to send to the IGTT and to have folks discuss on Thursday's call at 4:00 PM EST.
